

Matt Rodriguez
City Manager, City of San Pablo
Executive Director, San Pablo Economic Development Corporation

Matt Rodriguez was appointed the San Pablo City Manager on May 3, 2010. The San Pablo City Manager is the chief administrator for the City Municipal Corporation which provides municipal services over the City's 2.2 square miles with approximately 30,000 residents, and nearly 179 FTE employees. He is responsible for implementation of the San Pablo City Council's adopted policies and annual priority workplan, and administers the City's $27 million biennial operating budget.

Mr. Rodriguez also serves as the Executive Director of the San Pablo Economic Development Corporation, a non-profit, 501 c3 corporation established in March 2011 by the City of San Pablo focused on developing new programs and services geared toward workforce development, job and vocational training, and local business development for the San Pablo community. Recently, the EDC has served in the development of major public projects as a conduit for New Market Tax Credit (NMTC) Financing, an economic development program through the U.S. Treasury Department.

He has served in more than 26 years in local government managing a multitude of full-service municipal services in various executive management capacities, formerly with the Southern California cities of: Imperial Beach, Los Angeles, Solana Beach, and the County of Orange. Most recently, he served as Deputy City Manager (2005-2010) with the City of Pittsburg in Northern California.

Mr. Rodriguez earned a B.S. Degree in Public Administration, a Master's Degree in Public Administration (MPA), and a Master's Degree in Urban Planning (MPL), from the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, CA. He has also earned a Credentialed City Manager Certification from the International City/County Management Association (ICMA) (2004-2006).

Office: (510) 215-3000

Email: MattR@SanPabloCA.gov